

CLAIM RESOURCES FOR THOSE IN THE PATH OF HURRICANE IAN

Alert for Farmers GroupSelect policyholders in Florida, Georgia, and Alabama

We hope that you and your loved ones are safe and well. Farmers is monitoring the arrival of Hurricane Ian and want to help you prepare for any potential impact. Our commitment is to provide you with guidance, resources, and support to help make this time a little bit easier for you.

Your Safety is Our Top Concern.

We believe it is important to be as prepared as possible. Please visit our Plan and Prep resource page on Farmers.com for some disaster preparedness tips.

You can also visit Ready.gov for additional actions you can take before, during, and after the hurricane.

Should you and your family need to evacuate, you can locate a shelter through the American Red Cross.

When disaster strikes, it is important to contact us as soon as possible and report any claims immediately.
