Don't Own A Home? Why You Need Renters Insurance

Your landlord has insurance, but it probably only covers the building where you live—not your belongings or your liability for accidents. If your possessions are stolen during a break-in or damaged by a fire or severe weather, a renters insurance policy may allow you to recover their value. If someone is injured during an accident in your home, renters insurance could help protect you in the case of a liability lawsuit.

Save On Other Coverages

Take advantage of coverage to protect more than just your auto or home:

- Boat
- Condo/Townhome
- Rental Property
- Motorcycle
- RV
- Scheduled Personal Property (e.g. jewelry & artwork)
- Apartment
- Mobile Home
- ATV
- Utility Trailer

Multiple Discounts Available

You could save when you insure your auto and home with the same provider.¹ Find out how much you could save with discounts such as:

- Up to 15% for being a faculty, staff, or bargaining unit member of Johns Hopkins University²
- Driving accident-free
- Automatic payroll deduction

Feel confident that the knowledgeable, licensed representative you speak with will help you find available discounts.
