

Photographers' Business Liability Insurance Plan...providing up to $2,000,000 aggregate coverage each year!

The solution for Photographer's Liability Problem

Many facilities now require photographers who are using their site to purchase liability insurance – unfortunately, many insurance companies are unwilling or charge high premiums to write a “special events” policy – the Photographers Business Liability Plan is the coverage you need.

Who should apply?

This plan has been designed for those Photographers who operate as independent contractors and is ideal if you own or operate a small studio. It covers liability exposures both in and out of your studio. This Plan also protects your employees. Officers and employees are insured when named in a covered lawsuit as a result of business activities when they are acting on your behalf.

Comprehensive Coverage!

This policy provides up to $1,000,000 for each occurrence and up to a $2,000,000 aggregate limit each year. It provides comprehensive coverage for lawsuits resulting from bodily injury and property damage for which you might be responsible...including photographic sessions at malls, churches, hotels, etc.

In addition to the $2,000,000 aggregate limit, this Plan also pays defense costs for a covered claim. And all first aid costs incurred at the time of an accident will also be paid.

With the Photographers' Business Liability Insurance Plan...You're covered for:

- Suits arising out of covered bodily injury which occurs on or off premises as a result of your business activities.
- Suits arising out of covered damage to property of others resulting from your photographic business activities.
- Suits arising out of personal injury and advertising injury, including libel, slander, defamation of character, false arrest, detention and malicious prosecution.
- Suits arising out of products liability resulting from the serving of food and beverages or other products.
- Suits arising out of host liquor liability when serving or giving alcoholic beverages at functions incidental to your business provided that no permit or license is required prior to serving alcohol. Businesses should check with individual states regarding liquor law regulations.
- Suits arising out of real or alleged faults in work completed by or for your business resulting in bodily injury.
- Suits arising out of the use of automobiles not owned by you but used for business activities. (Not available in all states.)
- Suits arising from injury caused by the rendering of or failure to render health care services by non-professionals.
- Suits arising from fire damage liability for up to $100,000.
- Defense against such suits even though the charges made may be groundless, false or fraudulent.

There's no deductible

The Photographers' Business Liability Insurance Plan does not require a deductible before it starts to pay. All claims will be defended on a first-dollar basis – you don't have to pay a cent more than your initial premium! If you've ever compared the cost of similar coverage you can purchase individually, you might have had to decide on a large deductible to keep the cost down. With the Photographers' Liability Insurance Plan your cost is already lower – because the buying power of the entire membership is working for you.

Priced for you

Since no two Photographers are alike, this plan has been designed so that each application is separately reviewed for a premium quotation. The cost of this coverage varies by the state in which you reside.

How to apply:

1. Complete, date and sign the application enclosed. Be sure to fill out all questions thoroughly.
2. Mail or fax your completed application to the Administrator.
3. Upon approval, the Administrator will send you your premium quotation. You are under no further obligation.
