Employee/Retiree Name (Last, First, Middle)	Social Security Number
Address (Street, City, State, ZIP Code)	Email Address
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> This beneficiary information applies to all coverages applicable to the covered employee/retiree and will replace any prior beneficiary designation. The primary beneficiary is the individual(s) who will receive the insurance proceeds in the event of the insured's death. In the event the primary beneficiary(ies) predecease(s) the insured, the contingent beneficiary(ies) will receive the insurance proceeds. If no beneficiary is named, or no beneficiary survives the insured, settlement will be made in accordance with the terms of the Group Contract. To change your beneficiaries, you must complete a new form. If you wish to name more beneficiaries than this form provides space for, complete your list on an additional copy of this form and attach it.

Spousal Consent For Community Property States Only:

If you live in a community property state - Alaska, Arizona, California, Idaho, Louisiana, Nevada, New Mexico, Puerto Rico, Texas, Washington, or Wisconsin - you may complete the Spousal Consent section below, which allows your spouse to waive his or her rights to any community property interest in the benefit. Certain tribal jurisdictions may also require spousal consent. Please see your Benefits Administrator for details.

This will certify that, as spouse of the Employee named above, I hereby consent to my spouse designating the person(s) listed above as beneficiaries of group life insurance under the above policy and waive any rights I may have to the proceeds of such insurance under applicable community property laws. I understand that this consent and waiver supersede any prior spousal consent or waiver under this plan.

Disclaimer: Spousal consent does not apply to ERISA plans.

Complete this form and retain a copy for your records.*

Remember the following when completing your Beneficiary Designation form:

- Clearly identify your beneficiary(ies), providing each beneficiary's full name, date of birth, Social Security number, address, and relationship to you.
- You can name primary and contingent beneficiaries.

Primary: The primary beneficiary is the individual(s) who will receive the insurance proceeds at the time of your death.

Contingent: A contingent beneficiary, or secondary beneficiary, is the individual(s) who will receive the insurance proceeds if the primary beneficiary(ies) dies before you. Naming a contingent beneficiary is important, as you may outlive the primary beneficiary or die simultaneously.

- If you name more than one primary or contingent beneficiary, make sure the beneficiary percentages add up to 100 percent for each class of beneficiary (primary and contingent).
- Minor child: A minor child can be named as a beneficiary, but benefits cannot be released directly to the minor child. Benefits will be paid to the court-appointed guardian of the minor child's estate (or property). Parents are not automatically the guardians of a minor's estate. A parent may need to petition a local probate court where the child lives to be named guardian of the child's estate.
- Make sure you sign and date the beneficiary designation form.
- If no beneficiary is named, or if no beneficiary survives you, settlement will be made as provided in the Group Contract.

To assist you, here are some examples of clear beneficiary designations.
